STARTING DATE: April 2018

SALARY RANGE: Grade 7, (£34,520 to £38,833 per annum, pro rata), Grade 8 (£39,992 to £47,722 per annum, pro rata)

INDEFINITE/FIXED TERM: Indefinite.

HOURS: 0.6 fte

REPORTING TO: Head of Department (Applied Social Sciences)

THE POST:

The post of Lecturer/Senior Lecturer in Forensic Studies is in the Department of Applied Social Sciences in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences. The role demands expertise in forensic investigation in all or some of the following areas in particular: contemporary issues in the forensic science sector, trace evidence, and presentation of evidence and research skills. In addition, there is a requirement to supervise undergraduate dissertations and to lead modules on the Forensic Studies programme as well as in related areas.

MAIN DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- To undertake teaching duties on the BA Forensic Studies programmes, especially relating to the areas mentioned above
- To undertake teaching and dissertation supervision duties, actively contributing to the enhancement of the programmes
- To contribute fully to the research and knowledge exchange agenda through publication in appropriate peer-reviewed academic journals and other outlets and engaging in external conferences.
- To contribute to the Department's research environment.
- Initiating and participating in income generating activities, such as writing grant applications or consultancy work.
- To contribute to the development of working partnerships with other external agencies and institutions related to Forensic Studies, as well as contribute to the development of the programme at Winchester.
- To participate in the promotion of the programme and related programmes to external partners and both current and prospective students.
- To contribute to the promotion of Forensic Studies through school/college outreach, public talks, and promotional activities in the Faculty, including Open Days (requiring occasional Saturday or evening work).

- To undertake administrative duties as deemed necessary, including participation in relevant programme, Departmental and Faculty committees and activities.

OTHER DUTIES

All full time staff are expected to contribute to University administration, course planning, curriculum development, the recruitment of students, engage in research and knowledge transfer and scholarly activities. Additionally, staff are required to participate in relevant staff development activities. The University's courses involve evening and weekend teaching and, where necessary, this will form part of the duties of the post.

The person appointed will be required to undertake such other duties as may from time to time be allocated by the Vice Chancellor/Dean of Faculty.

General Information

It is anticipated that this job description will change over time in accordance with the needs of the role. The role holder will be fully consulted on any proposed amendments.

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

The appointment will be made in the range of Grade 7 (£34,520 to £38,833 per annum, pro rata) or Grade 8 (£39,992 to £47,722, per annum, pro rata), dependent on experience. Salary is paid monthly in arrears by direct credit transfer on the last working day of each month.

Your normal centre of duty will be the King Alfred Campus. However, you may be required to work in any part or department of the University and in any Campus of the University or as otherwise required for the due performance of your duties and responsibilities.

The annual leave year runs from 1 August to 31 July. Holiday entitlement is 35 days (pro rata) per year plus statutory Bank Holidays and local discretionary days. A proportion of this entitlement is allowed pro rata for part-time staff.

Other terms and conditions of employment appropriate to this post and grade apply in addition to those referred to in this statement. The list of benefits includes Pension Scheme, Sick Pay Scheme, Maternity and Paternity leave and pay (subject to eligibility). Details are contained in the Statement of Principal Terms and Conditions of Employment issued on appointment, the Staff Handbook and other documents referred to therein.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Candidates shortlisted for interview will be asked to give a presentation lasting 15 minutes on the following topic, appropriate to a group of Level 6 (third year) students:

An introduction to a Level 6 module on contemporary issues in forensic science

Following the presentation there will be a short question and answer session, with staff/students.

Applications should be made on line at www.winchester.ac.uk. Please note that posts close at midnight on the date stated. Late applications will not be accepted.

We delight in diversity in our workforce and seek those that share this value

Our values

We are a community committed to making a difference, passionate about seeing individuals and communities flourish. Our values of Compassion, Individuals Matter and Spirituality shape how we do this and why – we believe academic freedom leads to big ideas which in turn lead to social justice and creativity for a better world.

Compassion

Conscious of the kinship that exists between all life, we seek to nurture compassion and embody social justice for people, animals and the planet. This is a supportive, caring and safe place to work and study. Staff and students will be supported to flourish, encouraged to help others and empowered to make a difference in the world. We seek to challenge and nurture in all staff and students a love and value for all life and the planet. Staff are empowered to change the world for the better, challenge convention with compassion and stand up for what they believe to be true.

Individuals Matter

We are passionate about seeing individuals flourish here. The dignity and wellbeing of individuals is important as are their opinions and views. We are committed to working globally to ensure equality and justice for all. Everyone is welcome here. Staff and students will learn to value and appreciate others, whoever they are and whatever their background. You will be listened to; your opinions count. Together, we will be supported and challenged to reach our full potential. Our staff and students are nurtured to embrace equality, diversity and inclusivity to the full. Staff and students are supported to fight for integrity and justice in a world of compromises and prejudice.

Spirituality

We celebrate our Anglican Christian foundation and welcome people of all faiths and none. We believe that everyone expresses their spirituality through a unique collage of values, disciplines and practices. Working and studying here will give you a chance to experience and reflect on the creativity, beauty and compassion in life – together, we aim to explore the mystery of life and grow in wisdom and love. Our passion is to see staff and students grow as a whole person. It is safe to try new things here, to stand up for what you believe in. You will be supported to engage with the big and deep questions of life, to bring about change and really make a difference. We seek to challenge and develop staff and students' thinking, enabling them to develop in wisdom for a fulfilling life as well as the knowledge they need for a successful career. Our staff and students will have the resilience and resourcefulness to seize the opportunities and face the challenges of life.

Mission Statement:

'To educate, to advance knowledge and to serve the public good'

The University vision:

The University of Winchester is a university on a human scale, with a principal emphasis on the personal creativity and development of its students and its staff.

Through its teaching, research and professional practice, the University will be an outward facing and permeable organisation, welcoming outside influences and fully engaging with society locally and regionally, nationally and internationally. It will provide a high quality university education, responsive to the intellectual, personal and professional needs of its members and the wider community.

The University seeks to serve the spiritual and ethical needs of its students, building moral and global awareness. Our Church foundation is reflected also in strong support offered to students from backgrounds not traditionally associated with higher education. The University will ensure that its courses are accessible to all those who have the potential to benefit from them, regardless of their social, economic, ethnic or religious background.

As a twenty-first century institution which provides a progressive and challenging higher education experience and which forms a crucible for the generation and transfer of knowledge, we have high expectations of both staff and students. The professionalism of staff is reflected in integrity, objectivity and competence. Students' time at the University will provide them with a justified confidence in their abilities and the strength to stand up for what they believe to be true.
